Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Monday 19 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Remaining dry and sunny Monday evening. Warm and muggy overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
A fine summer's evening with clear skies continuing into the night, with light winds throughout. Some low cloud or fog is likely along Celtic Sea coasts. Another quite warm and increasingly muggy night for most. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tuesday:
Feeling hot again as fine, sunny conditions continue. Eastern areas will see the most of any fair-weather cloud, with a slight risk of a sharp or even thundery shower. Maximum temperature 32 deg C (90 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Hot and sunny on Wednesday and Thursday, both days bring a risk of a sharp afternoon shower, possibly thundery on Wednesday. Cooler, as further thundery and widespread showers arrive Friday.
